Tour 1: Flanders Fields Battlefields of the "Great War"

Our famous trip to the WW I Battlefields and memorials of the Ypres Salient.
A sobering and eye-opening part of the Western Front.

Stops include:

- The imposing Menin Gate, memorial to 55.000 missing soldiers and their sacrifice for 'King and Country'.
- Now tranquil war graves in Tyne Cot Cemetery, Passchendaele.
- Polygon Wood, its cemeteries and memorials.
- The preserved battlefield of Hill 60 (Battle of Messines).
- A leisurely lunch at Hooze Crater Museum.
- The infamous Menin Road.
- Bunkers and craters.
- Unearthed ammunition- the Iron Harvest.
- A German cemetery.
- Field Dressing Station, site John McCrae.
- Monuments to all the British Forces, incl. ANZAC and Canadian.
- Beautiful Ypres (Wipers).
- A restored trench.
- It is possible to visit an ancestor's grave and to extend the trip to include the Last Post Ceremony.
Please ask in advance.

What makes this tour memorable is the way your guides (Belgian/Australian couple) put everything into perspective. True and informative stories, knowledge and passion for the subject. Our tours come highly recommended by Trip Advisor, Lonely Planet, Rick Steves, Rough Guide and many others. Whether you want to learn of the tragedies of the Great War, visit an ancestor's grave or just see more of Flanders, this is a must see for everyone. Lest We Forget.

Tour 2: The Best of Belgium in one day with a Triple Treat

Flanders Medieval past and rich culture interwoven with "Chocolate, Waffle & Beer". This popular daytrip offers a little of everything as we meander the backroads between Bruges and the Belgian coast.

What you see:

- The moated Castle of Tillegem.
- Beautiful Damme, old medieval harbour.
- The neo-gothic Chateau of Loppem, full of priceless Flemish artworks and treasures.
- Romantic tree-lined canals.
- Picturesque villages and windmills.
- Scenic countryside (and cows!)
- Canadian WWII battlesite and huge German bunkers.
- One of the oldest gothic buildings in Flanders at the former monastery of Ter Doest.

Also includes:

- Lunch at Restaurant Ter Doest in Lissewege.
- Traditional Belgian waffle for dessert.
- Delicious Belgian chocolates made by a traditional chocolatier.
- We finish with a visit the micro-brewery Fort Lapin in Bruges, with a tasting of a couple of their excellent Belgian Beers. (incl.)

In all, a day in the life of a Belgian.
